Miss Elizabeth R. Burnell Heard at Residence of Judge and Mrs. Laumway.

At the home of Judge and Mrs. M. A. Shumway, and under the auspices of the Art club, an interested gathering listened Friday evening to an eposition of principles of anti-suffrage as expounded by Miss Elizabeth R. Burnell, first vice president of the Connecticut Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage. Miss Burnell was heard in Hartford Monday evening, when she declared that woman, many years in the future, may develop the kind of mind that can utilize suffred but now they are too single-minded to understand so complex a problem as the proper exercises of the right to vote. Mrs. Burnell said that we had been accused of being obstructionists, but we are constructionists for we are endeavoring to carry out, the scheme of life by creating interest in the home and the duties of motherhood teaching honesty and morality and good citizenship to the future citizens of the country. We are intensifying the educational side of development leaving the executive side to the men.
